

IT WILL RIVAL
THAT OF 1892

Spring Freshet in Iowa is Growing Worse Almost Hourly.

RIVERS ARE RISING
MINUTE BY MINUTE

Haystacks and Dwellings Float Past Sioux City.

Rise of the Water Was Comparatively Slow, and Many People Who Would Otherwise Have Met Death Were Given Ample Opportunity to Escape—Several Hundred Houses Stand in From Two Feet to Three Feet of Water and Thousands of People Are Homeless.

Sioux City, Ia., March 19.—It is the general impression here tonight, that the great flood of 1892, which did thousands of dollars worth of damage, will be equalled if not exceeded by the present freshet.

The Floyd and Missouri rivers are still rising at the rate of an inch an hour, and hay stacks and dwellings from the hamlets above the city are floating by as evidences of the destruction already accomplished.

The towns and cities so far affected by the flood may congratulate themselves that the rise has not been more abrupt—a fact which has enabled nearly every one to escape death by drowning.

Stock has not fared so well, and the carcasses of dead animals can be seen now and then rushing by to confound the Missouri.

It will be several days before the actual extent of the damage up the river can be determined, as all bridges and telegraph wires to the north are down, and have been since last evening.

This morning the bottoms on either side of the Floyd river in this city were entirely inundated and several hundred houses stand in from two to three feet of water.

Fortunately, the citizens in this district had been warned of the impending danger, and moved out in advance. This section is populated by the poorer classes, and thousands of families are homeless tonight. The water had risen this evening to the stock yards, and carried away the cattle and horses. The fall of this structure caused a stampede among the cattle cooped up in the pens. The commission men set to work at once removing the animals, as the yards themselves are threatened.

The ice in the river still holds firm, which only adds to the apprehension of the railroad men.

At 10:30 o'clock tonight, the Sioux City and Northern bridge across the Floyd was swept away, and several others will probably go soon. At 10:30 the river was still rising.

The Big Sioux flood is growing much worse. From Westfield, north of the city, a rise of 12 feet in four hours is reported, and a booming current is sweeping through the streets of the town. Bridges and culverts on the Missouri and all along and traffic is entirely tied up.

At midnight, the Missouri river had flooded here three feet in four hours, indicating either that a gorge below had broken or that a new one is forming above.

At Springdale, James, Hinton, Merrill, and Hawarden are all under water. Small streams all over the northwest are flooding the bottoms and doing great damage.

The only factor, thus far, is that of a farmer named Watson, said to have been drowned near Hinton while attempting to save his property. Railroad traffic in every direction from this point is suspended.

A report from Pender, Neb., says that one-third of the houses in that town are under water. The Logan river at that point is rapidly rising and great damage is expected.

MANY FATALITIES.
Full Number Will Probably Never
Be Known—Some Sickening Scenes Reported.

Little Rock, Ark., March 19.—A special from Gavin says:
The water rose two inches last night.
For many miles the country is flooded, and the water is up to the Iron Mountain tracks. Hundreds of section hands are striving to keep the water back with dirt levees. The water is so high the negroes are waiting to be taken away.
The list of fatalities is enormous and probably never will be known.

A man named Middleton, who arrived here with his family from nearby Rosebud island, four miles from Arkansas City, reports the death of a woman and five children Wednesday night. The water came up and though the unfortunate family were on the tables and chairs, the flood finally reached over their heads.

William Cartwright and William Cox, working on a farm at Rosebud island, lost their lives Thursday. They were in a dugout starting for stock, and the current upset the boat.

Jack Carter lost his life at Gavin Thursday night. His dugout was upset by rushing water.

Amanda Chapman, an old colored woman, just arrived from below, reported the death of six persons who were taken away by the flood. She said her wife and children in a dugout, and it tipped, drowning three. The water killed others in the house.

Charles Buckle, was drowned while trying to save his horse Thursday night near Gavin. He could not manage a dugout.

A mountain of household goods is piled up at every railroad station.
Whites and negroes beg for help from every train crew. Houses along the road are submerged to roofs and cattle are standing in the fields with only their heads above water.

A Roundabout Route.
Webster City, Ia., March 19.—Trains over the Omaha & Minneapolis railroad are running 40 miles from their place over the Chicago & Northwest route because of high water and weakened bridges. This afternoon Dr. Travis of Erie, Groves, and a farmer named Kierberger were drowned while attempting to ford the Boone river, north of here. The team, buggy and occupants were swept away. At 6 o'clock tonight the Boone had risen seven feet, and is rising at the rate of a foot an hour. The large bridge at Lehigh was swept away and others are threatened.

Highest Since 1891.
Cherokee, Ia., March 19.—The Little Sioux river is higher than at any time since the floods of 1891. All railroad communication except over the Illinois Central south of Ottawa, is cut off.
Three large bridges are washed out between here and Sioux Falls, S. D., and the Illinois Central Wagon bridges are generally swept away, and all communication east is cut off. The railroad bridge at Merrill is reported gone.
The people have sought the highland and much hay and grain on the bottoms is destroyed.

Des Moines Very High.
Fort Dodge, Ia., March 19.—The Des Moines river is the highest in years. Manufacturing establishments on the bottoms have closed.

Four Feet in the Streets.
Hawarden, Ia., March 19.—Water four feet deep in places fills the streets here. The railway bridges across the big Sioux are impassable. The water is rising six inches an hour. People on the bottoms are living in the second stories of their houses. There is great damage to local property and much stock has been drowned.

VENICE IN MINIATURE.
Cumberland River Raises 46 Feet at Nashville.

Nashville, Tenn., March 19.—The Cumberland river this morning registered 46 feet on the gauge. Rain fell all day, all last night and continued to fall this morning. The water is rising six inches an hour. There is great prospect of the greatest flood on record.
Much damage has already resulted from the overflow in the lowlands, and more will follow.

Large sections of East Nashville have been under water for several days. The river is already climbing to the business houses on Front street. Boats are now anchored to the sidewalk, and the prospect is that the first floors of buildings will be submerged. Dispatches from the southern counties of Tennessee and from northern Alabama report that the river is doing terrible damage in that region. The water is rising six inches an hour. Trains have stopped running on the Nashville, Florence & Sheffield railroad. A dispatch from Helena, Ark., says:

The river at noon was within two inches of the highest mark on record here. The sun shone today after a prolonged downpour of rain, and conditions are improving. The observer here urges all the people to leave the lands to move out at once to higher ground.

The levees in front and north of the city are being strengthened.

Disastrous Flood is Feared.
Milwaukee, Wis., March 19.—Reports to the offices of the different railroads in this city say that all the rivers and streams through the western part of the state are in a threatening condition, the result of recent heavy rains and considerable damage is feared. On the Prairie du Chien division of the St. Paul road several bridges were washed out today and the St. Louis Falls says much anxiety is felt by those who live along the river and in the lowlands. A disastrous flood is feared.

THE THREE FRIENDS.
Daring Filibuster May Soon Get Into Serious Trouble.

Jacksonville, Fla., March 19.—The mandate of the United States supreme court against the steamer Three Friends, which was granted in the government's appeal from the decision of Judge Lockwood, the United States district court for the southern district of Florida, was received Thursday, and was this morning presented to the district court by Special Attorney General Lockwood. The supreme court reversed Judge Lockwood's decision, and ordered the vessel to be taken in charge by the United States marshal.

Three Friends is now on her way to the port of Jacksonville, Fla., and turtles in tow. As soon as she arrives the boat she is now under will be cancelled and she will be taken in custody.

Another Story.
New York, March 19.—A World special from Tampa, Fla., says: Thirty-five Cubans left here tonight for Punta Gorda, Florida, where they found the Three Friends waiting for them, and they sailed for Cuba about midnight.

The revenue cutter Forward, stationed here to look out for filibusters, will be ordered Wednesday evening to intercept the Three Friends. Thursday afternoon the Three Friends sailed into Tampa bay and rode at anchor unnoticed till night, when it put into Hillsborough bay and slowly steamed up to Tampa.

Captain Lewis, her master, had spent the day here, but left Thursday night for Punta Gorda. Word was carried back to the boat and it sailed away for tonight's rendezvous.

The Three Friends takes a large load of ammunition, dynamite and rifles and a few heavy guns.

Memories Overflows.
Milwaukee, Wis., March 19.—The heavy rainfall during the day and part of the evening has overflowed the Milwaukee river, a suburb, some miles distant from Milwaukee, and from a point at Fort Street at Mount Vernon avenue the whole neighborhood for a distance of 10 blocks is submerged. Up to midnight no fatalities had been reported.

More Persons Drowned.
Memphis, Tenn., March 19.—The latest break in the levee system in this district occurred at a point near Austin, Miss., a hundred miles south. Particulars are not available.

At Cuttersville, Miss., a break occurred about daylight yesterday morning, and last night there was also a break in the levee at the same place, which flooded the lower part of town.

No lives were lost there so far as known. There were four deaths at drowning across from Memphis today.
Two men, a woman and her infant.

Business in the House of Commons.
London, March 19.—On account of the pressure of business in the house of commons, Mr. A. J. Balfour, the government leader, today moved the suspension of the rule providing that the house should sit at least once a week.
After a brief debate the motion was adopted.

The house went into committee of the whole on the naval estimates.

Grant Monument Dedication.
New York, March 19.—Mayor Strong announced today that President Mc-Kinley, Vice President Hobart, the cabinet, Major General Miles and several members of the diplomatic corps at Washington had accepted invitations to be present on April 25 at the Grant monument dedication.

San Francisco, March 19.—Thomas J.
Sharkey, the sailor pugilist, yesterday issued the following deft:
"I claim the championship of the world. It is mine, and I intend to claim and hold it until my colors are lowered. Fitzsimmons tells me that he has retired from the ring, but whether he has or not, I am the champion, and will fight him at any time or place. I have $2,500 deposited with W. W. Naughton as a forfeit for a bet of $10,000. Money talks, and if Fitzsimmons, Maher, Goddard and any other man can cover it, they can do so at any time, and I will be greatly pleased.
I whipped Corbett before 10,000 people, and he had plenty of training
